

Rees, Consiglio exchange vows

Sarah Elaine Rees and Joseph Michael Consiglio, both of Hoboken, N.J., were married 5:30 p.m. Oct. 16, 1999, in a double-ring ceremony at First Presbyterian Church in Van Wert. The Rev. Edward Jillson officiated, and music was provided by organist Ed Rentz.

The bride is the daughter of David and Anne Rees, Van Wert. The groom is the son of Joe and Josephine Consiglio, St. Louis, Mo.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a sleeveless ivory matte satin gown with square neckline and drop V back. The bodice, hem and chapel-length train were accented with ribbon embroidery, small rosettes and pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a comb of ivory roses.

She carried a bouquet of ivory and blush pink roses accented with blue delphinium.

Jodi Rees, Miamisburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a navy blue chiffon dress with scoop neck, short sleeves and Empire waist, and carried a bouquet of pink and ivory roses with blue delphinium. The bridal attendants' ensembles were identical to hers.

The bridesmaids were Kerry Shackelford Bohac of Lakewood, friend of the couple, and Christina Casey of St. Louis, sister of the groom.

Chris Reifschneider of St. Louis, friend of the couple, was best man. The groomsmen were Steve Eden, Atlanta, Ga., friend of the couple, and George Kroeger of St. Louis, friend of the couple.

The ushers were Sean Casey of St. Louis, brother-in-law of the groom, and Alan Rees of Columbus, brother of the bride.

The groom wore a black double-breasted tuxedo with muted gold vest and tie. In his lapel he wore an ivory rose accented with blue delphinium.

A reception was held at The Hotel Marsh in Van Wert immediately following the ceremony. It was hosted by Becki and Kevin Maney of Oxford, cousins of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple returned to their home in Hoboken.

The bride attended Delphos St. John's High School and received an undergraduate degree from the University of Dayton and an MBA from the University of Pittsburgh. She is employed at Ernst & Young LLP, New York, N.Y.

The groom graduated from Fox High School and received his undergraduate and master's degrees from Washington University in St. Louis. He is employed by the Princeton Review in New York.
