FROM THE SESSION TO EACH MEMBER

We invite the attention of all our members to the following principle of Christianity:—That every member is appealed to, to contribute to the financial support of the church "as the Lord has prospered him." Wilful negligence of this duty is disloyalty not only to the Lord's cause, but also to the Savior Himself; and those who neglect, deprive themselves of the privilege of being shoulder to shoulder with Christ in the salvation of the world.

THE SESSION.

FOREWORD

Dear brothers and sisters:

We again present our Annual Report and therein we read a little part of the work of the church.

We are glad that we have here a record to the memorial of one of God's saints, Miss Alice B. Jones. She being dead, yet speaks.

We are all anxious to see the church of Christ prosper, but we may forget the essential things for its prosperity. We are in danger of concentrating our efforts upon big things. Let us remember that it is the little things that count. It was the little thing that healed Naaman and the principle is still the same. May we remind each other at the beginning of this year of two words, words that mean so much in all things, and especially in the life of the church.

REGULARITY. Regularity in attendance at the means of grace, and regularity in our contribution to the extension of the kingdom of God. The person who is regular accomplishes more, and he does it easier than the person who attempts big things occasionally.

REVERENCE. "Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God."

Very sincerely yours,
WM. JONES.
