The triumphant resurrection of Christ is the life and hope of the Church.
And by His blood He sealed the Book
And paid the redemption price to save sinners.

REPORT OF

SALEM AND ZION

PRESBYTERIAN

VENEDOCIA, OHIO

1935-1936

FOREWORD

Dear Friends:

This word of personal greeting is also an expression of appreciation and gratitude to all who have rendered their services of love for another year to the Church of Jesus Christ at Salem and Zion. It is but a small part of the story that is told in these two reports. But it has been a vital and essential part of the Kingdom's work amongst us.

I have been greatly encouraged during these past few months of part-time service with you by the friendly spirit of cooperation which prevails among all members and all the various departments of our Church. Even the absence of a regular pastor for a period of two years has served to reveal the capacities for leadership that lie within the different groups. And the willingness of all to assume their share of the responsibilities of church membership has indeed been encouraging. All this inspires your pastor with high hopes as he now enters upon his ministry with you.

The losses sustained in a number of our homes in the passing away of beloved ones have been great again this year. Of these who were called to their reward within the past twelve months we can say that they "loved the habitation of His house, and the place where His honor dwelleth."

The ministry of song has always been inspiring in the churches of this community. And there is still music in our worship services that stirs the heart. God grant that we may continue again in these years, even as a multitude of those who have worshipped here in years past, to see visions of a nobler life under the spell of music, to find the closed doors of our spirits unlocked at the touch of song, and to be moved to true worship as our hearts are lifted up in praise.

Above all, our prayer is that the spirit of Jesus Christ may increasingly possess us, His love empower us, His mind control all our works and ways. And may we be helped to keep the honor of His Church bright, her peace unbroken, her services wide as the paths of men, and her courage undismayed.

Beyond our highest joy

We prize her heavenly ways,

Her sweet communion, solemn vows,

Her hymns of love and praise.

Very sincerely yours,

W. T. JONES
