
ANNUAL REPORT OF

Salem and Zion
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

OF Venedocia, Ohio

From
April 1, 1941 to March 31, 1942

FOREWORD

Dear Friends and Fellow Workers:

An eminent preacher has recently said: "We shall never live successfully until we live with the sense of God in our lives." Is not that what the church stands for? It fosters, nurtures and keeps alive the sense of God in our lives. And our need of the church today is all the more urgent because our need of God is more clearly demonstrated than at any time within the memory of anyone now living.

It is our glorious privilege to have a part in the program and in the support of the Church of Jesus Christ in this community. It is fitting for your pastor in this foreword to another annual report to express our appreciation for every evidence of loyalty, devotion and love on the part of the membership throughout the year. This report is not intended to tell the whole story. It records the manner in which we have exercised our stewardship of giving. But it cannot tell of all the service faithfully, loyally and sacrificially rendered. Neither does it attempt to measure the devotion in prayer -- "the effectual fervent prayer" -- of many among us. Such prayer has not been unheeded by the Great Head of the Church.

Especially do our prayers go out these days on behalf of the many young men of our church serving on land and sea in the armed forces of our nation. May God give them strength to be ever loyal to the highest at whatever cost and in every circumstance. We pray for the speedy arrival of the day of their safe return, and of the day when the counsels of peace and unity shall again mightily prevail among all the nations of the earth.

May our faces here at home be turned toward God. May we avail ourselves to the utmost of the ministry of the church as it seeks to keep alive within us "the sense of God." Then, all the world's confusion, the din of war, and whirl of events will not shake our faith. "When these things come to pass, then look up, and lift up your eyes..." (Luke 21: 28)

In the service of Christ and His Church,

W. T. Jones.
