
ANNUAL REPORT
OF Salem and Zion
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES
OF Venedocia, Ohio

From

April 1, 1942 to March 31, 1943

FOREWORD

This foreword should be from the pen of your new minister and it is unfortunate that this report must be prepared for the printer before he arrives. But, as I wrote, I am thinking of him and this, his first pastorate. I am thinking of the high hopes with which he will begin his work here and of the contribution, spiritual as well as financial, which each member may make to the joy and success of his work.

These are fine reports covering the work of the past fiscal year and the giving of each individual is to be commended, but I am hoping that they will not be matters of satisfaction but incentives leading you out and on to an ever larger work for Christ and his Church in these tragic times. Whatever your church may have attained, during the past year, the calling of God is ever onward. The heights are still ahead! The Apostle Paul sums it up in his expression: "I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

That, it seems to me, is the message for this page and for this hour. There is a voice—aye, there are voices, calling you forward. The voice of your new minister—a voice vibrant with enthusiasm, earnest in its appeal, true in its testimony, urging you forward. The voice of the Apostle, the voice of your church's past, the voice of God, all urging you to look beyond the present and fulfill your church's mission. Grateful for the past but not resting on it, it is your privilege to set forth under the leadership of your new minister and, as you go onward and upward, you take with you your community, our land and, by Christ's power, our world!
