
ANNUAL REPORT
OF
SALEM AND ZION
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES

OF VENEDOCIA, OHIO

From

April 1, 1944, to March 31, 1945

FOREWORD

At the conclusion of another year, we pause and view the progress of the Salem and Zion Churches. It is fitting that we use the word "progress" for advancement has been made. Our giving to benevolences has increased, as well as the support of the local church. Once again we have generously oversubscribed our gift to the Presbyterian War-Time Service Fund. In both churches our membership has increased. Such a report as this can give no figures on spiritual advancement. That such advancement has been made, however, is indicated by the progress in the departments already mentioned. For it is true that the purely spiritual aspect of the church is inseparably bound to the financial and organizational aspects.

The significance of this report of the work of our churches is more than local in scope. Rather, it is a record of the working of the Kingdom of God in our communities, and our part in helping to bring that Kingdom to all men everywhere. This that we do is eternal. Our report, though it deals in figures, has to do ultimately with the hearts and souls of men.

I should like, in this foreword, to express my gratitude to the officers of the churches for their fine work in making this advancement possible. They have been earnest in their service to the churches, and they deserve credit for their loyalty and devotion.

As this report goes to press, victory has been won on the Western Front, while the struggle still continues on the Eastern Front. Our hearts are filled with thanksgiving to God who alone "makest wars to cease unto the ends of the earth." With gratitude to Him for His loving care over us, with penitence for our sins and shortcomings, both personal and national, let us again during this coming year dedicate ourselves to this work of the Kingdom of Christ. We know that He alone can bring enduring peace to nations and to the hearts of men.

—Gerald R. Johnson.
